

Environmental Grantmakers Association

2009 Fall Retreat Observing Yom Kippur

Sundown, Sunday September 27 – Nightfall, Monday September 28

In addition to shifting the traditional Monday – Wednesday format of the Retreat, many of the field trips are offered afterwards to not interfere with this High Holy Day. We hope this helps you observe Yom Kippur should you decide to come up to Anchorage prior to the start of the Retreat.

Congregation Beth Sholom

7525 E. Northern Lights Blvd, Anchorage, AK 99504

“All visitors who wish to worship with us are welcome. Though our Congregation is very committed to Reform Judaism, people from diverse Jewish backgrounds have found our liturgy appealing. Our facilities are beautifully located in a natural setting which enhances the worship experience. Please feel welcome to attend. Transportation can usually be arranged if needed.” – From the website.

For Additional Information

Website: www.frozenchosen.org

Phone: 907-338-1836

Email: ShalomAlaska@aol.com

Congregation Shomrei Ohr – Chabad

1210 East 26th Avenue, Anchorage, AK 99508

This is part of the Lubavitch Jewish Center of Alaska. Rabbi Yosef Greenberg is the Director.

For Additional Information

Website:

www.chabad.org/centers/default_cdo/aid/117927/jewish/Lubavitch-Jewish-Center-of-Alaska.htm

Phone: 907-279-1200

Email: E-mails can be sent to the Rabbi from website